

DEMPSEY-BRENNAN BOUT LIKELY TO BE CALLED OFF BY INDIANA AUTHORITIES

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 16.—(By the A. P.)—Officials of Laporte county have until 2 p. m., Friday to order abandonment of the Jack Dempsey-Bill Brennan fight, scheduled for Saturday, it was indicated today at the office of Governor McCray. Unless the officials take action by that time the governor will order the bout stopped. Governor McCray had prepared a letter today to Sheriff William E. Angus of Laporte county directing that the match be abandoned but following a conference with a delegation of Michigan City residents the letter was sent to the county officials with the understanding that the match might have an opportunity to take place.

Floyd Fitzsimmons, one of the promoters, visited the state house during the day but after his visit the governor said he was certain the bout would not be held.

EAST AND WEST WOMEN TO BATTLE FOR TENNIS HONORS

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The women's national turf singles championship for 1922 tonight rested between two eastern and two western players with the completion of the fourth round of the thirty-fifth annual tournament on the courts of the West Side club. Representing the Pacific coast are Miss Helen Willis, the 18 year old raquet phenomenon from San Francisco and Miss Mary Watson Bundy of Los Angeles, who in 1921 won her first national championship when but a year or two older than Miss Willis. The eastern players are Mrs. Mollie B. Mallory of New York, the present title holder, and Miss Leslie Bancroft of West Newton, Mass.

From this quartette will emerge Saturday afternoon the premier player for the present season. The finalists will develop tomorrow afternoon when Miss Willis plays her California rival, Mrs. Bancroft, and Mrs. Mallory meets Miss Mary Watson Bundy. Both Californians played hard three set matches this afternoon. Miss Willis winning from Mrs. Bancroft, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3, and Mrs. Bundy defeating Mrs. Mallory, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2. The eastern survivors came through in straight sets. Miss Bancroft winning from Miss Leslie, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2. Mrs. Mallory, breed-4 through her match with Miss Edith Sigourney of Boston 6-0, 6-1.

Chief enthusiasm centered in the contest which brought Miss Willis and Mrs. Bancroft together in the final match of the afternoon. The little and youthful far coast player opened in rather an uncertain and doubtful form, due partly to the speedy court with the speed and directness of a ranking male player and her speedy backhand caused the latter to pile up errors in costly fashion during the first set. The second set Mrs. Bancroft steadied and began to take charge of the play, her forcing tactics and driving to first one side and then the other of her opponent's court, throwing Mrs. Bundy upon the defensive and preventing her from getting firmly set for stalling returns. From this stage of the contest onward, the match was one of the most brilliant seen on the eastern courts in years. Both showed excellent pace and control, dropping their returns steadily within two or three inches of the back line. In the last analysis it was Miss Willis who had control of the shots and ability to anticipate the direction of returns that gave her the winning edge. The younger from San Francisco stood on the middle of the back line and frequently made five or six returns without moving more than two or three steps.

Miss Bancroft opened her play against Mrs. Bundy with a splendid exhibition of aggressiveness and speed, driving which appeared to catch the former champion unprepared, and it was not until well in the middle of the initial set that Mrs. Bundy began to respond better for drive with her opponent. From that point the match developed into a test of stamina and control in which the former champion brought into play the benefit of her long years' experience on the courts and outstayed Mrs. Bundy in the aggressive younger across the net. In the second session Mrs. Bundy appeared to take a breathing spell, deliberately refusing to play out strokes in the final game, but she came back in championship form in the third and decisive set and raced through a love victory without giving Miss Bancroft any opportunity to assume the offensive.

The Bancroft-Cassel match was a base line driving game throughout the first set with both players making numerous net shots and a series of long carefully played rallies. Miss Bancroft, however, went to the net more often in the second set and from fore-court angled off unplayable returns for a quick second set.

RED SOX VICTORY OVER CHICAGO

Boston, Aug. 16.—Hits behind passes by Mack, Chicago rookie pitcher, enabled Boston to defeat the White Sox today, 5 to 1. Schalk and Pitcher Hodge, who relieved Mack, had a mix-up on the bench after the Red Sox had made a double steal, and two runs in the eighth. Falk made a home run, the ball bounding over the right field bleacher fence. Score:

MAYS BLOWS UP IN NINTH AND TIGERS WIN

New York, Aug. 16.—Car Mays went to pieces with two out in the ninth inning and Detroit defeated the Yankees in the second game of the series, 7 to 3.

ST. LOUIS SPLITS EVEN IN DOUBLE BILL

Washington, Aug. 16.—St. Louis split even in a double-header with Washington today, winning the first game 7 to 2, and losing 11 to 3, in the second. Shockley pitched well in the opener, the visitors winning in the seventh when they battered Brillhart for four runs. Johnson hurled steadily in the closing encounter while the locals hammered Kohn, Bayne and Melne. Johnson, Peckinpah and Harris got home runs in this game. Score:

St. Louis (A)	Washington (A)

CUBS TAKE EASY GAME FROM THE BRAVES

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Chicago hit Houlahan hard and drove him off the mound in the fourth inning today, easily defeating Boston, 10 to 4, making it six straight for the locals. Osborne was wild, but was not hit hard. He was replaced by Cheever after he had walked Barbara and Gibson had followed with a home run drive over the right field wall. Score:

Boston (N)	Chicago (N)
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

PHILLIES OUTHIT REDS AND WIN EASILY

Cincinnati, Aug. 16.—The Phillies slightly out-hit the Reds today, but Rixey was strong with men on base and the home team won 3 to 1. Poor infield play by Caveney and Ponceca saved the visitors from a shutout in the fourth. Manager Wilhelm of the Phillies is confined to his hotel room with a severe cold, and the team played today under the guidance of Captain Fletcher. The score:

Philadelphia (N)	Cincinnati (N)

SARAZEN ELIMINATES HUTCHISON IN BRILLIANT MANNER AT PITTSBURGH

Country Club, Pittsburgh, Aug. 16.—(By the A. P.)—Eugene Sarazen, former caddy but now Pittsburgh's first golf citizen, removed a tremendous obstacle from his path to the national professional championship when he came up from behind this afternoon and won his 36 hole match with Jack Hutchison, Chicago's Eastern Kentucky champion. Sarazen who won the national open title a month ago trailed the mighty Scot most of the day, but finally caught him on the home stretch of the afternoon round and then played over Pittsburgh today. Hutchison was knocked from the mound in this inning and Yellowhorse, who replaced him, walked one man, filling the bases and then made a wild pitch which scored two runs. Hutchison then played his hit until the sixth. Barnes replaced him and was driven from the mound in the eighth when five hits, including Russell's homer, scored three runs. Score:

Batting BEE IN FOURTH	WINS FOR GIANTS
Pittsburgh, Aug. 16.—A batting tempest in the fourth which yielded six runs, gave New York a 7 to 6 victory over Pittsburgh today. Hamilton was knocked from the mound in this inning and Yellowhorse, who replaced him, walked one man, filling the bases and then made a wild pitch which scored two runs. Hutchison then played his hit until the sixth. Barnes replaced him and was driven from the mound in the eighth when five hits, including Russell's homer, scored three runs. Score:	Pittsburgh (N)

CASINO TOURNEY NARROWS TO WEST AND EAST PLAYERS

Casino, Newport, R. I., Aug. 16.—The Casino singles tennis tournament moved up to the semi-final stage today with two Californians and two easterners bracketed to fight it out for the honors as finalist and as representatives of their sections. As a result of today's matches, William M. Johnston of San Francisco, who eliminated L. B. Rice of Boston, and Howard O. Kinsey, a fellow player from the Golden Gate, will battle in the upper half, and N. W. Niles of Boston and H. G. Kelleher of New York, the latter by virtue of a victory over W. E. Davis of San Francisco, will contest for survival in the lower half.

The meeting between Johnston and Rice was the first in which members of the "first ten" have opposed one another. It was decided on point, Johnston winning 6-2, 6-3, but it left no other ranking singles player in the last two rounds of this seeded tournament. The elimination of the French Davis cup players and the defeat of R. Norris Williams, 2nd, upset the calculations. Kelleher's success, 3-6, 6-1, 8-6 against Davis in their fourth round match today also disposed of a seeded player. Niles won from the Texas college player, Lewis E. White, 6-2, 6-3 and Kinsey beat his fellow Californian, James Davies, 6-0, 6-2.

Double play held late this afternoon went about as expected, all the foreign players advancing. The French team of Andre Gobert and Jean Borotra had a bit of a tussle with E. H. Leonard and C. M. Wood, Jr., New York, their match going three sets, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4. Henri Cochet, another French cup player, teamed with Nat W. Niles, Boston, his singles conqueror of yesterday to win from L. B. Rice, Boston, and W. W. Ingraham, Providence, 6-1, 2-6, 6-4. R. C. Weather, Australian Davis cup substitute, and H. C. Johnson of Boston, won from R. B. Bidwell and Josiah Wheelwright, Boston, 6-1, 7-5.

The old American Davis cup combination of Williams and Washburn defeated F. C. Baggs and W. Rosenbaum, New York, 6-2, 7-5. Summaries: Singles, four round complete. W. M. Johnston, San Francisco, defeated L. B. Rice, Boston, 6-2, 6-3. Casino doubles second round complete. H. O. Kinsey and R. Kinsey, San Francisco, defeated J. W. Foster, Boston, and A. S. Orsain, New York, 6-4, 6-2. R. C. Wertheim, Australia, and H. C. Johnson, Boston, defeated R. B. Bidwell and J. Wheelwright, Boston, 6-1, 7-5. Andre Gobert and Jean Borotra, France, defeated E. H. Leonard and C. M. Wood, Jr., New York, 6-3, 1-6, 6-4. C. M. Bull, Jr., New York, W. W. Weather, Newport, and L. N. White, University of Texas, 6-3, 6-4. J. M. Davies and Phil M. Neer, Lealand-Stanford university, defeated J. S. Cushman, Newport, and E. B. Benedict, Cambridge, 6-2, 7-5. W. E. Davis, San Francisco and S. H. Howard Voshell, New York, defeated A. Tencken, British embassy, and H. G. Kelleher, New York, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3. Henri Cochet, France, and Nat W. Niles, Boston, defeated L. B. Rice, Boston, and W. W. Ingraham, Providence, 6-1, 2-6, 6-4.

FAST TIME MADE ON BELMONT TRACK YESTERDAY

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—The old Belmont driving park today lived up to its reputation as a wonderfully fast track for harness races. C. W. Carpenter, Newport, and L. N. White, University of Texas, 6-3, 6-4. J. M. Davies and Phil M. Neer, Lealand-Stanford university, defeated J. S. Cushman, Newport, and E. B. Benedict, Cambridge, 6-2, 7-5. W. E. Davis, San Francisco and S. H. Howard Voshell, New York, defeated A. Tencken, British embassy, and H. G. Kelleher, New York, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3. Henri Cochet, France, and Nat W. Niles, Boston, defeated L. B. Rice, Boston, and W. W. Ingraham, Providence, 6-1, 2-6, 6-4.

BINGHAM RESIGNS FROM HARVARD ATHLETIC AFFAIRS

Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 16.—William J. Bingham, of Lawrence, assistant graduate treasurer of the Harvard athletic association and for the past two years head coach of the Harvard track team, will resign his position on December 1, next, the Harvard athletic association announced today. The statement added that Coach Bingham would probably be retained as supervisor of track athletics and would be in charge of Harvard's track policy, but would do no active coaching.

"Bill" as he is widely known, passed his boyhood as a worker in the Lawrence mills. He then went to Exeter and while there became prominent in track, breaking the world's interscholastic record for the half mile. In Harvard he made a great name for himself on the cinder path and captained the varsity track team. Next to Ted Meredith, Bingham was considered the world's greatest half miler.

RUSSELL MEETS SHANNON TONIGHT AT WILLLOW POINT

Interest is high in the proposed Russell-Shannon bout, when both boys reported to the Club in good shape for the 12 round bout at the Willow Point Casino tonight. The promoter is in receipt of a letter from Nate Seigel who will try and accompany Shannon and handle him in the ring. Seigel states that if Shannon fails to win from Russell he will meet the prize of Norwich at the Willow Point Casino anytime at the club's own price.

Leader who meets Saviola in a special bout of ten rounds is known as the "Fighting Wop" and will be remembered for the fact that he boxed Marty the New Bedford flash a draw recently. He is one of the only boys that was ever returned a winner over Frankie Jerome, the boy that is after Joe Lynch for a crack at the title. Among others that Leader has known are Chick Sullivan, the New England featherweight champ, Bobby Josephs, former N. E. champ, Charlie K. O. Elkins, Eddie Swash, Eddie Wilson, Frankie Fay and Spencer Gardner.

Older Gibson will tackle H. Fornier, the terror of the Sailors, who will meet for eight rounds at 142 pounds, and a real slugging match is expected. Gibson's Powers is well known around Boston. These two boys will slug it out for six rounds, if either does not apply the slumber slap before the limit.

The crow apparently knows what a gun is, according to authorities on the bird.

SCOTLAND

The Sunday school held its annual picnic at Columbia Lake last Wednesday. Over ninety persons, young and old, made the trip by automobile. The company enjoyed bathing, rowing, baseball, etc., besides a fine basket lunch under the trees by the lake. The entire affair proved a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jennick of Boston with their family, have been spending several days here with relatives. John H. McCarthy has been ill for a week. James H. Johnston sold his business recently.

Miss Florence Whyte who has been taking a summer school course at Yale, has returned. Mrs. C. M. Smith is at a private hospital in Wallingford. Herbert D. Sisson is employed in Wallingford. Daniel McDougall of Moosup spent the week end with his sister, Mrs. Henry Clark. Mrs. Susan Willis spent Friday at Watch Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moore who have been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kimball left Sunday for their home in Hartford.

Middletown.—Winthrop Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Warner of Washington street has arrived here with a boat purchased in Boston. The boat was used as a tender on a battleship of the United States navy. It is 33 feet long, has a beam of ten feet and performs wonderfully well in rough weather. Mr. Warner, who is a member of the Middletown Yacht club, is to convert the tender into a catch rig.
